21 Plaintiff filed his within complaint on May 7, 2008, alleging, among other things, his 22 placement on unpaid administrative leave on March 19, 2008, based upon an administrative 23 charge of discrimination filed with the United States Equal Employment Opportunity 24 Commission on May 6, 2008. However, at that time, the United States Department of Justice
25 had not issued a notice of right to sue thereon as required by the provisions of 42 U.S.C. Section
26 2000e, et seq. Since that time, the United States Department of Justice issued a Notice of Right 27

1 to Sue thereon on June 6, 2008 as required by law.

2 Defendants duly filed their answer to said original complaint on June 13, 2008.

3 Plaintiff claims that subsequent to the filing of said complaint, Defendants have engaged 4 in unlawful discriminatory conduct against him, including but not limited to, the termination of 5 his employment on May 16, 2008, for which he filed an administrative charge of discrimination
6 with the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission on May 22, 2008.

7 Thereafter, on August 8, 2008, the United States Department of Justice issued a Notice of Right
8 to Sue thereon as required by law.

9 Accordingly, it has become necessary for Plaintiff to amend said complaint to allege said
10 issuance by the United States Department of Justice of said notice of right to sue dated June 6, 11 2008 and to supplement said complaint to allege Plaintiff's subsequent termination of 12 employment, said administrative charge of discrimination filed with the United States Equal 13 Employment Opportunity Commission relative thereto and said subsequent issuance of a Notice
14 of Right to Sue thereon by the United States Department of Justice.

15 THEREFORE, the parties hereby stipulate to an Order issued herein allowing said 16 amendment and supplementation of the complaint herein.

17 The parties agree that Defendants reserve the right to respond to the amended complaint 18 within the time period allowed by, and in accordance with, applicable law, including filing any 19 appropriate motions to dismiss, after service of the amended complaint.
